

TRADS Annual General Meeting

The TRADS Management Committee is hosting the 2024 Annual General Meeting in October, to which you are cordially invited. The full details are below:

Date:	16 October 2024
Time:	5.30pm
Place:	The Argyle, Greville Street, London EC1N 8PQ

The annual general meeting is being convened for the following purposes:

- to receive and approve the Chairman's annual report
- to receive and approve the independent examiner's report and financial statements
- to consider any special resolutions that Members may wish to put forward
- the election of officers to the TRADS Management Committee

At the meeting, paid-up Members will have the opportunity to:

- put forward ideas for the continued development of TRADS
- find out and ask questions about the operations and finances of TRADS
- speak about any items on the agenda
- vote on any resolutions proposed
- vote for nominees to the Management Committee

Refreshments will be provided, and we hope you will stay to socialise and network in the usual way.

By order of the Management Committee: Jess Nutt, Chair

Date: 16th September 2024

Note: In order to be eligible to vote you must be a paid-up member of the Society.
